

KPS Insurance Services, Inc.

Bonding the building industry one relationship at a time.

KPS is a service driven agency committed to providing knowledgeable, professional, service to its business partners. Our experience in the surety bond industry as home office and branch underwriters allows us to have a unique perspective when helping clients manage exposures to risk that can impact surety credit.

We want to be thought of as a team member not just someone you call when you need a bond. Our prior experiences, professional relationships within the construction community, and dedication to provide a high level of service allow KPS to stand apart.
